

Unknown Stories of the Great War

Saturday 17th September 2016. 10.00am—4.30pm

To coincide with the Centenary of the Battle of the Somme (1st July-18th November 1916), Oxfordshire families are urged to bring First World War photographs, letters, diaries and objects to tell their stories at the Soldiers of Oxfordshire Museum. Experts from the museum, Western Front Association and other organisations will be on hand to talk to visitors about the significance of their memorabilia and to help them find out more. Living historians will be giving demonstrations and there will be displays, activities for children, support for researching a soldier and refreshments available. This event is supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund. Entry to the museum is free all day, though donations would be appreciated.
