

From Aotearoa to Oxford

Commemorating the New Zealand soldiers buried at Botley Cemetery

Saturday 8th October 2016
1:45 – 2:45pm

A FREE event, to which everyone is welcome
In the presence of the New Zealand High Commissioner
His Excellency The Right Honourable
Sir Lockwood Smith KNZM

Accompanied by
Brigadier Evan Williams, NZ Defence Advisor,
New Zealand Defence Force

Please note there is no parking available.
Seacourt Park and Ride is 350m from the site.

Commonwealth War Graves Cemetery
Botley Cemetery
North Hinksey Lane
Oxford OX2 0LX

Department
for Culture
Media & Sport

Department for Communities and Local Government

BIG IDEAS
COMPANY

sijen.com
EDUCATIONAL CONSULTANCY

Followed by, from 2:45-4:30pm
Refreshments, an exhibition and short talks on how and why New Zealanders came to be buried at Botley.

Botley WI Hall, North Hinksey Lane
Oxford OX2 0LT.
(Opposite the cemetery entrance)

 FACULTY OF HISTORY

 TORCH  THE OXFORD RESEARCH CENTRE IN THE HUMANITIES

Explore for More...

This event is part of work carried out by the 'Globalising and Localising the Great War' project at the Faculty of History, University of Oxford. For further details scan the QR code or email jeanette.atkinson@history.ox.ac.uk or <http://greatwar.history.ox.ac.uk/>

Supported with funding from the CWGC Living Memory project