

Music and Memory:

JONATHAN DOVE IN CONVERSATION WITH DR KATE KENNEDY

Friday 27 April 2018, 5:30-7:00pm

Lecture Theatre 3, Andrew Wiles Maths Institute
Woodstock Road, Oxford

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Award-winning composer Jonathan Dove talks to broadcaster Kate Kennedy about music, war and commemoration. Their discussion will be illustrated with excerpts from his compositions.

Dove's works include In Damascus, To An Unknown Soldier and the TV opera When She Died, a reflection on the death of Princess Diana.

For more details and to reserve your ticket, please visit:
<http://www.torch.ox.ac.uk/jonathan-dove>